TAX RATE IS RUINOUS SAYS SCHOOL MEN

ONLY SIX MONTHS SCHOOL WILL BE POSSIBLE UNDER THE RATE
BOARD — COUNTY FINANCES
WRECKED BY LEVY

LOOK OUT FOR NEXT YEAR

Bitter condemnation of the tax levy rates as announced by the State Tax board is being voiced by town, city, township and school officials. The Governor through his tax board is attempting to give the impression that the new law will result in great saving for the tax payers. But the fact is that the levies have been slashed to such an extent that the corporations have not been given enough money to carry on the business, without piling up debts that will cause much concern in the future.

Although on its face the new tax levies give the impression that the tax payers will get off easy, in reality the insufficient levy is only leading to greater financial troubles in the future.
In order to make the new tax law appear successful the levies have been kept at a figure which is no higher than last year. But in doing this the revenues asked have been cut to such an extent that the only way the corporations will be able to get along will be by borrowing money.

This will leave debts to be paid the following years.

For instance, Putnam county, under the levy set will have a deficit of at least $24,000, the first year.
School levies have been cut in all townships in the county. Cloverdale township, which this year is paying its school teachers a total salary of $13,000., will be cut on this revenue alone, to $6,400, for next year. This will mean that the school term will have to be shortened to six months, or money borrowed to pay the teachers.

The same condition exists in virtually every other township in the county. Not only are school funds, but other funds, are cut short. No provision has been made for paying $24,000. of the United War Work fund bonds issued by Putnam County and due next year. If this levy is not fixed by the State Board, the county will have to borrow money to pay the bonds.

U. S. SUB BEATS GERMANY'S BEST

American Boat Speedier, Has Greater Radius and Is More Habitable.

RESULT OF RECENT TESTS

Direct Comparison Is Made With Submarines of Latest German Type—Good Accommodation for Officers and Crew.

Washington.—Elaborate tests carried on by the navy department, the results of which were announced by Acting Secretary Franklin Roosevelt, show that the latest type of American submarine is superior in nearly every respect to the German U-boat.

The American boat is speedier, has a greater radius of action and is much more habitable than the German boats. Naval officers are of the opinion that the American submarine is the more seaworthy. Of the characteristics of the two types the navy department says in an authorized statement:

"New and interesting light is thrown on the efficiency of the German submarines by recent tests conducted by officers in the bureau of construction and repair.

"An opportunity recently developed in this country which permitted a direct comparison between a late design of German submarine and a late design of American submarine. While details of the comparative tests cannot be given, sufficient information is available to destroy the much-advertised superiority of the German submarine.

Given Special Trials.

"As is well known, five German submarines of the latest design were brought to the United States for use in the Victory loan campaign. Four of these boats came over under their own power, manned by officers and men of the United States navy. The propulsive machinery of the fifth was partially destroyed or removed, so that it was necessary to tow the vessel across.

"The best of these German boats was 'tuned up' for special trials. When repeated ready for these trials a special board was designated to conduct the trials, following the established practice in carrying out contract trials for submarines of the United States navy. The boats compared were ex-German submarine U-111, built at the Germania yard, Kiel, Germany (completed in 1918), and S-3, a submarine designed by the navy department; S-2 was built at the Portsmouth navy yard and was commissioned in 1918.

"These boats both belong to the '800-ton class,' U-111 having a surface displacement of 820 tons and S-3 a surface displacement of 854 tons.

"In the trials the maximum surface speed of the U-111 was 13.5 knots, while the S-3 made 14.7 knots. The submerged speed of the U-111 was 7.8 knots, while S-3 made 12.4—a remarkable difference in favor of S-3. The radius of action of the two boats is also in favor of S-3, despite all the furor that was created by the advent of the German U-boat on American coasts during the war.

"U-111 can cruise 8,500 miles at 8 knots.

HORSE, BUGGY AND OCCUPANTS GO OVER A TWELVE FOOT BANK

Mr. and Mrs. Holmes Craver, son and daughter, narrowly escaped serious injury on Sunday morning, when a pony Mr. Craver was driving began to kick and run, and ran off a twelve foot bank at the side of the road. The horse, buggy and occupants rolled down the bank and landed in a barbed wire fence. Luckily the occupants of the buggy all escaped injury.

The accident occurred on the road just west of the Golf Links. Mr. Craver was driving a pony he had just purchased. As he started down a hill, the pony began to kick and run. When it went over the bank and landed in the fence the pony became tangled in the wires and the fence had to be cut before the pony could be gotten out.

SALVATION SAYS GROSE JESUS IS THE ONLY

"Our social order is doomed unless we bring disorder and anarchy under the spirit of Jesus," said Dr. George R. Grose in his address at the first University service of the year, on Sunday afternoon. His subject was: "The Demand for Christ." There are no special rules from the lips of Jesus Dr. Grose said, to aid in the present day social reform. The only way the World can be saved, he said, according to Col. Henry Watterson is by the Christain religion.

In speaking of the teachings of Jesus, Dr. Grose emphasized that it was the truth of those teachings and not the quantity of them that impress the people of today. For the actual recorded teachings of Jesus could be printed in the space occupied by an ordinary magazine article, of today, he stated. In spite of the fact, Dr. Grose said, that the teachings of great instructors of comparatively recent times have been almost forgotten, the truths left by Jesus are on the minds and hearts of the people today because of the very truth which they contain.

Jesus meets the last demand of society, Dr. Grose said, by his ability to transform human character. He is a God who gives a second and even a third chance when we fail. "The greatest thing in our time" he concluded, "is for me and for you to find the spirit of Jesus Christ."

The service was somewhat delayed, by word received at the last minute, that Prof. Van Denman Thompson, organist, could not be present, because of sudden illness. Miss Lois Brown and Mrs. Barnum gave the piano forte numbers. Prof. Barnum played the offertory. The University choir sang.

THE HERALD-DEMOCRAT

JAIL IS HIS HOME

Man Had Been Imprisoned There for Twenty-Seven Years.

With a record of twenty-seven years spent in prison, William Rinker of Norristown, Pa., is a problem for Presiding Judge Swartz to solve.

The judge said in court that the prison inspectors are convinced that further incarceration will be of no avail; that when he is in jail Rinker is a model prisoner, and is all right outside except when he gets liquor, when he reverts to stealing—unconsciously, he claims. Rinker has been out of jail two years, after serving a five-year sentence for larceny. Less than a month ago he was found at 3 o'clock in the morning with a bag of shoes. In pleading guilty to receiving stolen goods Rinker said that after a fellow he didn't know had plied him with whiskey, he handed Rinker the bag, whose contents Rinker did not know.

Rinker's latest employer, Frank R. Heavner, a builder, told the court he is willing to take Rinker back and act as parole officer. The shoes found in the bag had been stolen from the store of Sarah Goldberg, Norristown, by breaking a show window.

BONES OF ANCIENT CAMEL

Had No Hump and Was About the Size of Jack Rabbit.

That an ancient camel—the size of a jack rabbit—roamed the vicinity of The Dalles, Ore., 2,000,000 years ago, is a fact recently discovered by a group of University of Chicago geologists. Bones of the prehistoric camel and those of a horse of the three-toed variety were found in caves near The Dalles during a tour to inspect the formation of the Cascade mountain range.

The geologists report that the horse, smaller and different from the horse of today, belonged to the miocene age. The teeth are carnivorous instead of being grinders.

The old time ship of the desert, according to the bones found, had no hump. Its feet bones are like those of the present day camel.

KINDNESS IS QUITE COSTLY

Animal Given a Home and Then Proprietor Was Fined.

Kindness to animals has cost Jack Mills of Clarks Mills, Pa., a cool $175. A short time ago he found a female ferret on his farm. It was so tame that he took it to his home and cared for it. Several days later it presented him with a family of six little ferrets. A complaint was filed against him by Game Warden Gruver, charging the keeping of ferrets contrary to the state law. He was fined $25 and costs for each ferret in his possession.

In justifying his action Gruver declared that "it has been noted each rabbit season that hunters had in their possession great quantities of rabbits that defied all search for shot marks."

"Thou shalt have dates on only one night through the school week." It is the ultimatum of the Women's Self-Governing Association of DePauw, there is, verily, much wailing and gnashing of teeth. The women students at the Methodist university have had their collective judgment on the matter of dates weighed in the balance and found wanting. The Women's Self-Governing Association's executive board is the weighing. The one date through the week order resulted.

There were fifty-five charter members and with several more waiting to come in as soon as they are baptized and others yet to be admitted there will be at least seventy-five members of the new church.

LEGION PLACES RUSSEL NEWCENT ON GOOD SALARY

The Indiana branch of the American Legion closed a successful session at the Statehouse in Indianapolis Friday afternoon, after adopting a number of resolutions, including one against toleration of political and revolutionary activities by foreigners in the United States and another ensuring city councils and public officials who play politics by attempting to curry favor with unassimilated foreign forces.

The legion placed its secretary L. Russell Newcent, of Indianapolis, on a salary of $250 a month until January 1, 1920. It was decided to devote the week of November 11 to a drive for new members.

Charles Donnohue of this city was the delegate to the session for the Greencastle chapter.

BUTLER FALS HARD IN

GAME WITH DEPAUW

DePauw's football team, including members of the first and second and even into the third string, walked over the Butler squad Friday afternoon in an engagement which finally ended after two hours and a half of wild running and passing by the Tiger aggregation, with DePauw on the long end of a 76-to-0 count.

The mixed eleven was composed of subs and regulars, which started the scrap for DePauw, and took up the good work with a bang for the Old Gold institution in the opening stanza. Before three minutes of the long afternoon had been wasted "Liz" Burton had battered his way through the Butler line for the first marker of the battle.

Butler, weakened by the loss of its captain, Mullane, who played center in the Wahash game for the Indiana polis team, failed completely to gain through the Tiger line or around the opposing ends. Not once did the down and its only recourse was to punt. In this department the work of Phil Brown was noteworthy.

Standing out in the play for Coach Buss's men was the spectacular and flashy running of H. Galloway. As a dodger and open-field runner he outshone any seen on McKean Field in recent years. On three occasions Galloway broke through for touchdowns from the thirty and forty yard lines. In these dives he not only out ran his opponents but slid through four and even six Butler tackles. Burton and A. Galloway also came in for their share in the attack while Acting Captain Weinland, Ted Ogden and Moffett were the big lights in the Tiger line. The play of Kiser and Shell on the Butler line and Ike Woods, who was laid out in the third quarter by a stray kick in the head, were the stars for Butler.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Kesterson of Lafayette were here Sunday, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Arthur Plumer is ill at her home on Highland street.

HOME BOYS WON

THEIR FIRST GAME

Greencastle won, score 47.
New Market lost, score 0.

It was a great game to start off the basketball season for the local high school. The fast G. H. S. squad played rings around the visitors during the entire contest, permitting New Market only one shot at the basket during the first half.

The enthusiasm was at the highest pitch during the evening. Park Bryan leading the more than 500 in attendance in yells. Never before in the history of the high school was there better spirit shown; more co-operation among the team and student body and a brighter outlook in the state of Indiana Greencastle.

The New Market team played hard, but lacked the team-work when given a chance to hit the baskets. Their shots went wild. Coach Wilfred Smith of the local team was pleased with the first game, but will watch for that dreaded evil among players—over-confidence.

The next game will be on Friday night with the husky five at Bainbridge. There possibly is no team in the state of Indiana Greencastle would rather beat than their north Putnam county friends.

Last night there were no individual G. H. S. stars, but there was a star team. That is the kind that wins tournaments. During the second half three substitutions were made and practically a second team held the visitors to no score.

The line and summary are as follows:
Greencastle
Sisler f. Irwin
Wright f. Harris
Day c. Allen
Armstrong g. J. Hirt
Seaman g. L. Hirt
Substitutes, Talbott for Harris, Stoner for Irwin.

Field goals—Greencastle: A Pen 10, Irwin 6, J. Hirt 2, Talbott 3, Harris 1, J. Stoner 1.
Foul goals—Allen 1.
Referee—H. Miller of DePauw.

TIE MAN'S HANDS

AND ROB BANK

BARGERSVILLE, Ind., Oct. 18.—The Farmers' State Bank, here, was robbed early today. Several thousand dollars worth of Liberty bonds, government certificates and War savings stamps were taken. An unsuccessful attempt was made to drill a hole in the bank's safe. Scores of safety deposit boxes were rifled and valuable papers were strewn over the floor. J. C. Sanders is cashier of the bank.

The robbery was reported by Good Surface, who is employed as night watchman of the town. Surface says that three men in an automobile stopped him shortly before 1 o'clock to inquire the route to Martinsville. As he was directing them, two of the men jumped from the machine and tied his hands and feet. His hands were tied in front of him and his mouth was tightly bound with a rag.

A pillow was taken from the automobile and was placed on the bank steps while the three men entered the building. Surface says the men were in the bank almost two hours.

One of the robbers came to the door and asked him how he was making it out there. He answered all right, but that it was pretty cold. He was then put in the automobile for a short time and later taken into the bank, where a fire was lighted in the grate for him.

AUTOMOBILE STOLEN

FROM PROF. DODSON

A Chevrolet touring car, owned by Prof. E. C. Dodson, superintendent of the Greencastle schools, was stolen from the front of the high school building on Vine St., on Friday night, during the playing of the New Market-G. H. S. basketball game.

The only clue the officers have is the appearance in the school building of a stranger, about 28 years old, who inquired of Miss Lelia Walls, who was in the hallway of the building previous to the playing of the game.

The stranger who was unshaven and unkempt, asked Miss Walls how long it would take to play the game. He intimated that he lived in New Market and desired to ride home with the members of the New Market team. It is believed that this man might have taken the car.

Officers were notified by Prof. Dodson, immediately after the game and a search was made during the night but no trace of the car was found. Prof. Dodson did not carry insurance against theft on his car.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving remembrance of our beloved brother, Michael Adam Ader, who departed this life one year ago today, October 17, 1918.

Beneath our eyes you faded slowly, bearing sweetly all your suffering. You are sleeping dearest brother, and we know that you are happy in your everlasting home. Our home is lonely without you. But one blessed thought, we can join your home your sorrows are ended, and a new above, where there will be no parting. There will be no vacant chair in heaven, as your chair is vacant here, while we are left to weep. But why do we grieve? You know no care, your sorrows are ended, and a new home you have won. And tears won't bring you back. Silently the moon shines on Michael's treasured grave, where sleeps the one we love, but could not save. With God's will a gentle voice said come and without a farewell spoken, our brother entered home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rogers.

Reid tusison of Indianapolis, and O. E. Tusison of Chicago are here for a few days visit with friends and relatives.

The Story of a Tarrot Captain
Promotion in the Navy comes quickly to those who qualify for higher ratings. In March 1899 A. P. Nilsson enlisted in the Navy as an Apprentice Seaman, 3rd class. In April 1907 he was rated Chief Tarrot Captain. His pay today is $165.76 per month.

A man's life—among men!

Reel them off—"Rio", Gibraltar, Ceylon, Yokohama—all the great ports of the world—are they only places on the map to you—or are they ports where you've gone sailing in from the high seas with every eye along the shore turned admiringly on your big ship—your ship! Every ocean has a United States ship sailing for some port worth seeing.

If you've any call in you for a full life—join, and color all your years ahead with memories of things worth seeing—with knowledge worth having—with an inexhaustible fund of sea tales and adventures picked up ashore and afloat that will make you a well-come man in any company.

Work?—sure, and a man's work it is, among men.

Play?—well, rather, with a bunch of men who know how to play. These comrades of yours carry in their ears the sounds of great world cities, of booming guns, of swashing seas—sounds you will share with them and that will never die away.

And when you come home, you'll face life ashore with level eyes—for Uncle Sam trains in self-reliance as well as self-respect. The Navy builds straight men—no mollycoddles.

Enlist for two years. Excellent opportunities for advancement. Four weeks' holidays with pay each year. Shore leave to see inland sights at ports visited. Men always learning. Good food and first uniform outfit free. Pay begins the day you enlist. Get full information from your nearest recruiting station. If you do not know where the nearest recruiting station is, ask your Postmaster. He knows.

Shove off!—Join the U. S. Navy

Haven O'Rear motor-boat to Lebanon Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Murphy and son of Crawfordsville were here Sunday visiting friends and relatives.

Two Estimates.
"Chubby Woggles regards himself as a great catch."
"The poor fish!"

What's Repartee?
"Pa, what is repartee?"
"It is, as a rule, an insult with a dress suit on, my son."

Unkind.
"He's a man after my own heart."
"That's giving yourself quite a high rating, isn't it?"

In a confidential little talk to a group of medical students an eminent physician took up the extremely important matter of correct diagnosis of the maximum fee.

"The best rewards," he said, "come, of course, to the established specialists. For instance, I charge $25 for a call at the residence, $10 for an office consultation, and $5 for a telephone consultation."

"There was an appreciative and envious silence, and then a voice from the back of the amphitheater, slightly choked, spoke:

"Doc," it asked, "how much do you charge a fellow for passing you on the street?"

He Knew Donkeys.
A teacher was instructing a class in English. She called on a small boy named Jimmy Brown.

"James," said she, "write on the board 'Richard can ride a donkey if he wants to.'"

Jimmy did so to the satisfaction of all concerned.

"Now," continued the teacher, when Jimmy had returned to his place, "can you find a better form for that sentence?"

"Yes, miss," Richard can ride the donkey if the donkey wants him to."

Center Environment.
"What's Eloise doing now?"
"Welfare work in prison."
"It's too bad for a refined girl like that to come in contact with hardened criminals."

"Oh, she merely visits the 'bankers' colony.' It's really a high-class club, you know, whose members have moved in good society and expect to do so again as soon as their period of seclusion is over."

Simple Budget System.
"Every young wife should have a budget system to govern her expenditures."
"I know, I have one, I pay what I can and owe the rest."

Frank Wallace, County Superintendent, and Prof. F. C. Tilden, of De Pauw attended the meeting of the School Masters club in Indianapolis Saturday.

Willis Vermillion has accepted a position in the First National bank.

JUST IN FUN

Speaks for Itself.
"Are you an experienced aviator?"
"Well, I've been at it three months and I'm all here."

The Vigorous Outing.
"Going to take another vacation?"
"Yes. The one I just got through with has tired me fearfully."

Just Wait a Bit.
Mrs.—I'm out for a tramp.
Mr.—It won't be necessary; one is sure to call for something to eat.

Sign of the Three Balls.
"What are the principal places of interest here?"
"The offices of the money lenders."

Business First.
The Unfortunate—Help!
Undertaker—Just a moment, friend.

No Low Shoes.
"I bought a pair of shoes today."
"High?"
"Extortionately."

The Doctor's Orders.
"Will you have some dark meat?"
"No, I'm on a light diet."

Unrequited Love.
"Misery loves company."
"Yep, but I never heard of company loving misery."

His Reply.
"Is she modest?"
"Well, she dances all the new dances."

Rather Hard.
"Is young Mr. Daft such a fool as he looks?"
"No, indeed, more so."

Alternative.
Highwayman—Your money or your life!
Victim—You will have to accept amendments and reservations.

Farm Note.
"Pretty girls attract other boarders."
"And pay board themselves. Yes, they're a great help."

She Has Archibald Going.
Anabel—Archibald would do anything for me, you know. Why, he's even trying to cut out cigarettes.

The Easiest Way.
"Do you always let your wife have her own way?"
"Yes, and mine, too."

On Land and Sea.
"What is a revenue cutter, pa?"
"A revenue cutter is a coupon clipper, my son."

Reciprocity.
"Did the doctor pay a visit?"
"Yes, and the visit paid the doctor."

Many Do.
"Do you believe everything you hear?"
"Everything that is scandalous."

NO DIVORCE IN LITHUANIA

Cupid Wears Furs and Mittens, but His Darts Are Just as Deadly.

There are no June brides and no divorces in Lithuania. January brides there are in plenty, for 90 per cent of the weddings in the new Baltic republic occur during the winter months.

Cupid has to wear furs and mittens in this land, but his darts are just as deadly. You see, a Lithuanian wedding lasts for a week or more. Time cannot be spared from the fields and farms for such a general celebration in the summer months, but in the winter all the relatives of the bride and groom can do full justice to the occasion. Moreover, winter is the time when social affairs and family visits prosper. Roads are few and poor in some parts of the country. Winter makes every marsh and lake a highway. Neighbors are brought nearer when the gayly painted sledges may be driven across lots.

Lithuanians say there are no divorces because native wives are real helpmeets, partners in the farm, and thoroughly domestic in their tastes. Maybe it is because long marriage celebrations are more potent.

The Lithuanian marriage feasts begin when the bride gives a big party to her friends on "maiden night." The groom, too, has a small and uninteresting affair. After midnight he and his friends visit the bride's home. Then comes the ceremony of removing the flowered wreath of her girlhood and substituting the matron's cap.

The wedding always takes place on Sunday in peasant circles. If it is a grand one in a church, the whole edifice is illuminated brightly. The bride is led in by two young men and followed by her bridesmaids. The groom and his escort follow. Behind the wedding party come the two mothers.

During the whole ceremony it is rigid etiquette and custom for the bride to weep. If she does not the older women scold her until she does.

After the ceremony comes the feasting and dancing. First the bride's mother entertains. Then the groom's mother is hostess. Celebrations sometimes last for more than a week, for after these two big parties the relatives of the bride and groom follow suit.

Marriage is a serious thing in Lithuania. When a man marries he marries for life. His wife is not his slave. Neither one is boss. The wife does light work in the fields and attends to her domestic duties. Race suicide has never threatened Lithuania.

Getting Rid of Many Dollars.

The Rockefeller foundation has spent $22,444,815 on war work, including appropriations for 1919, since 1914. The vast scope of the foundation's activity is revealed in the first installment of a review prepared by Dr. George E. Vincent, president of the foundation. The flood of gold poured out to relieve the suffering and the necessities of humanity covered pretty much the whole world. Large sums went for medical research, the war work of the Rockefeller institute, for war research, for hygiene and for demonstrations. Great sums were appropriated for relief in the small countries, most devastated—Belgium, $1,498,000; Armenia and Syria, $610,000; Serbia, $163,895. The American Red Cross received the immense contribution of $8,083,772.

Narrow Squeak.

"Your front door is unlocked, sir," shouted the policeman when he found that Mr. Bobsover had gone to bed without attending to his locks.

"It's all right," replied the burglar from the bedroom window a minute later. "My son will lock it when he comes home. Here's a shilling for you."

"An easily earned bob!" chuckled the policeman as he walked away.

"A narrow squeak," said the burglar with a sheet round his shoulders as he turned back into the bedroom.

"Very!" replied his accomplice whose hands were tightly clasped over poor Mr. Bobsover's mouth.—London Ideas.

Educated Clerks.

Two Terre Haute school teachers, both college graduates, spent a week recently clerking in a Chicago bakery. One day they sold several articles to two customers. The bill came to exactly 93 cents and both were elated, because of the size of the sale. They were further elated when they heard one of the women remark to the other one as they left the store: "They must have educated clerks here now. Did you notice that they counted up the bill in their heads instead of using a piece of paper as the old ones did?"

Limitations of Nature.

"It's no use," sighs the nature wizard. "I may as well give up."
"What is bothering you?" we ask, sympathetically.

"I got started a few years ago on a whim of mine. I took a head of cabbage and crossed it with a white potato and grew eyes on it; then I crossed that with a cornstalk and grew ears on it; then I crossed that with a squash and grew a neck on it; then I crossed that with a coconut and grew hair on it, but hanged if I can figure out what to do for a nose and mouth!"—Chicago Journal.

Putting on Side.

Diner—How is it that the terrapin on your bill of fare is always struck out?
Candid Walter—That's just a fancy touch, sir. We never had a terrapin in the joint.

SHE KILLED HER KEEPER

Attempt to Separate Lioness From Her Young Ends in Horrible Death.

She was a lioness. In spite of her being caught in the jungle where she was born, and caged and carted around a strange country behind iron bars, she had become a mother. Two cubs nestled against her breasts, and the fierce passion of a wild mother's love guarded them from man's approach. It was in Woodbury, N. J., they tried to separate her from them, says Our Dumb Animals. She flung herself against the door of the compartment they had put between her and her children, seized the keeper by the neck and crushed him to death. Attacked by a score of attendants with iron bars, tent stakes, hooks and clubs, she finally broke from her cage, escaping into the crowd, till, riddled with bullets, she dropped and died. Why shouldn't she have killed her keeper? It was the natural thing to do. Generally, after one of these outbreaks of anger when the last strand in the cord of patience snaps, the caged lion is again beaten and cowed into submission, and the keeper continues to hold his prisoner in restraint through fear. Not often does the strength of the caged captive triumph over the cunning and the cruelty of man.

A friend writes us: "I lack eloquence to express adequately my sympathy as well as my admiration for the magnificent maternal courage of the poor lioness, that, though riddled with bullets, still fought to her last gasp for her little ones."

"The pity is our small and defenseless animals have not the size and strength of a lioness when cruelties are practiced upon them, in order that they can perform for the laughter of inhuman humanity."

Some day an enlightened public conscience will put an end to the cruelties of the circus and the zoo with their imprisoned victims doomed to that eternal pacing back and forth that sickens the heart of every humane spectator.

When Scot Meets Scot.

The following Scotch tale is one of President Wilson's favorites: A Scotchman was strolling through the market place in Glasgow one day and close at his heels followed his faithful collyie. Attracted by a fine display of shell and other fish, the Scot stopped to admire, perhaps to purchase. The dog stood by, gently wagging its tail, while its master engaged the fishmonger in conversation. Unfortunately for the beastie, its tail dropped for a moment over a big basketful of fine, live lobsters. Instantly one of the largest lobstermen snatched its claws on the tail, and the surprised collyie dashed off through the market, yelping with pain, while the lobster hung on grimly, though dashed violently from side to side. The fishmonger for a moment was speechless with indignation; then, turning to his prospective customer, he bawled: "Mon! mon! whistle to yer dog, whistle to yer dog!" "Hoot, hoot," returned the other complacently, "whistle to yer lobster!"

Her Eyes to Blame.

Some time ago I had my eyes tested, and found they had dropped in them to enlarge the pupils. The eye doctor assured me I'd be able to see perfectly provided with a pair of dark glasses. My friend, who was with me, said she wasn't so sure about it. On leaving the doctor's office we boarded a crowded car, my friend going to the front and leaving me to take a vacant seat in the rear. All of a sudden I could see hardly anything, and in sitting down I sat on a young man's lap. I quickly removed to the vacant seat beside him amid the titters and laughing of a group of college boys standing in the back entry. My only relief was in the black glasses I wore for I knew no one would know me again without them.

Not an Ill Wind.

Six bushels of apples for 50 cents. "Cheap enough," says John Robbins, local real estate dealer, who is telling his friends how he made the exchange.

Last Sunday he and his wife were eating a country dinner with friends in Cumberland. The afternoon was tranquil and a dainty little breeze was making it very comfortable.

"Kate," says Robbins, addressing the lady of the house, "I'll just pay you 50 cents for all the apples that fall in your orchard this afternoon."

Within an hour Sunday's tempest broke into the orchard and when Robbins had cleaned up the back end of his car was heavier by six bushels of apples.

That Breezy Western Way.

They were playing poker in a western town. One of the players was a stranger, and was getting a nice trimming. Finally the sucker saw one of the players give himself three aces from the bottom of the pack.

"The sucker turned to the man beside him and said: 'Did you see that?'"

"See what?" asked the man.

"Why, that fellow dealt himself three aces from the bottom of the deck," said the sucker.

"Well, what about it?" asked the man. "It was his deal, wasn't it?"

Going Too Far.

"How do you like this futurist style of painting?"

"Don't like it. I see it has reached the theater now. It was bad enough when you didn't know what the play was all about, but I call it the limit when you don't understand the scenery."

Plenty of wheat— but only good in spots

We've gathered from the best.

This year's wheat crop is big—but weak. The big bulk of it doesn't contain enough gluten to make bread rise properly. Only in a few favored spots is the wheat up to standard in strength.

We have to get this good wheat or stop making Valier's Enterprise Flour, because it is the only wheat with sufficient strength to make the quality of flour you have always had in Enterprise.

We are getting it, but the premium we paid in ordinary years to get the best, wasn't enough to get choice wheat this year. We have to pay an extra premium; but we pay it gladly, because we know that you would rather pay a little more for and be sure of having the kind of light, wholesome bread you have always had.
